To all Presenting Couples: Expectations Concerning Kickoffs

1. All couples who have presented at least one weekend are expected to take their turn presenting kickoffs.
2. APCCs should assign kickoff presentations on a rotating basis.
3. Kickoffs 1 and 2 should be presented to a rookie couple by the same presenting couple if at all possible.
4. Even though these kickoffs should not be written or workshopped, presenters are expected to be quite familiar with the outlines and have practiced what they might say with another presenting couple.
