Print this checklist and hang on your fridge as a reminder of your upcoming experience!

After you register for the experience:

- Invite another married couple who values their relationship to attend the experience
- Make childcare arrangements (if needed)
- Write down (separately or together) what you would like to accomplish during the experience (example: "better communication")
- Congratulate yourselves for investing in your relationship

Day before the start of the experience (Thursday):

- Check out directions and time required to get to the hotel
- Pack beverages and snacks for those between meal munchies
- Pack comfortable clothes and shoes and any medications needed
- Bring a sweater or jacket (for presentation room temp comfort or inclement weather)

First day of the experience (Friday):

- Dress comfortably
- Add hotel location in smartphone for directions
- Bring an open, willing spirit to learn a new communication tool
- Check in at the Marriage Encounter registration table and meet our team
- Find seats in the presentation room prior to the 8:00 pm start
